Are You Experiencing Domestic Abuse?

If you answer yes to any of these questions, you may be experiencing domestic abuse.

- Are you frightened of your partner's temper?
- Do you make decisions about activities and friends according to what your partner wants or how your partner will react?
- Does your partner destroy your belongings or limit your access to money?
- Do you feel like you are walking on eggshells?
- Has your partner hit, kicked, punched, slapped or pushed you?
- Does your partner try to keep you away from your family and friends?
- Does your partner want to know where you are every minute?

Two Methods of Reporting

RESTRICTED REPORTING

Restricted Reporting allows adult victims of domestic abuse, who are eligible to receive treatment at a medical treatment facility, to report an incident to specified individuals without initiating the investigative process.

- A restricted report can only be made to the following:
- Victim Advocates
 - Supervisor of Victim Advocates
 - Healthcare Providers (including FAP clinical social workers and their supervisors)

UNRESTRICTED REPORTING

Unrestricted Reporting will trigger an official investigation

- An unrestricted report can be made to any of the following:
- Command
 - Military Police
 - Victim Advocates
 - Healthcare Providers
 - Anyone you trust

If you would like to make a restricted report of domestic abuse, contact the following:
